To drop an online class, please contact your advisor. After speaking with your advisor, send an email to your instructor and records@mayvillestate.edu stating your name, Student ID number, Catalog number (i.e. ENGL 120) and name of the course you wish to drop. You cannot drop a course in CampusConnection on your own. For a complete withdrawal of all courses, contact Stephanie Bowlin, Director of Student Retention and Disabilities Services at 1.800.437.4104, ext. 34675, or by email: stephanie.bowlin@mayvillestate.edu

Consumer Information

In compliance with the Higher Education Amendments of 1998 and consumer protection practices, Mayville State University provides information to current students and employees about the institution. In addition, all prospective students, prospective employees, parents of current and prospective students and members of the general public may obtain this information upon request. Distance Student Handbook

The Distance Student Handbook is a document specifically created for online and distance students that can help familiarize you with the various resources available as a Mayville State distance student. In this handbook, you will find information on accessing various services, offices, forms, and other resources you will need as a student with Mayville State. There are also a number of tutorials to help you use Moodle, email and Campus Connection.

You can find the handbook on the MSU website, in the Distance Student Orientation course in Moodle or simply by following the link provided here: http://www.mayvillestate.edu/prospective-students/academics/extended-learning/distant-student-services/
