SUMMER Residence Hall Room Application & Contract

This is a legal binding contract assigned on a summer term basis unless there is an approved request for cancellation three weeks prior to the end of the spring semester. Summer applicants are contracted for summer. The request must be filed at the Student Life Office. Refunds for students who withdraw will follow the regular University refund policy as stated in the college catalog. Students desiring to break this contract while still enrolled will be responsible for total payment of monies owed. The room contract is required of all residence hall students and a $30 reservation fee (non-refundable) must accompany this contract before reservations are made. No room keys will be issued without the applicant signing this document first.
