

Learning to Sort

What's Inside?

Learning to Sort

This activity for young children gives them the opportunity to see all kinds of shapes in all different colors, and work through putting them in the correct jars by color, shape, and size.

What's Inside?

This activity allows children to really use their sense of touch to figure out what they might be feeling inside the fun cube.

